DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-6 and 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

a. The power clamp is not being disclosed as being a clamp without the arm because what will actually clamp.

2. Claims 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

a. The following claims lack proper antecedent basis:

i. Claims 14-18 depended from a claim that does not exist.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

4. Claims 1 and 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Dellach et al (US2002/0195761).

Art Unit: 3723

Dellach et al disclose a powered clamp having a housing (18) with two high-strength planar plates (24), two lower-strength member (22), internal means with elongated slot (28), pins (72), clamping arm (20),

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dellach et al (US2002/0195761).

a. Dellach et al (US2002/0195761) is discussed above.

b. Dellach et al (US2002/0195761) discloses the claimed invention except for the use of metal and aluminum. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used metal and aluminum, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2 and 10-13 would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims; furthermore the 112 first and second paragraphs would have to be overcome as well.

Art Unit: 3723

8. Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

9. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Takahashi (5996984) discloses a wear block (106a) however that block is not attached to the internal means when moving to the first and second limits.

Conclusion

10. While the Examiner might speculate as to what is meant by the claim language, the uncertainty provides the Examiner with no proper basis for making the comparison between that which is claimed and the prior art. Rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 103 should not be based upon considerable speculation as to the meaning of terms employed and assumptions as to the scope of the claims. In re Steele, 134 USPQ 292. When no reasonably definite meaning can be ascribed to certain terms in a claim, the subject matter does not become obvious, but rather the claim becomes indefinite. In re Wilson, 165 USPQ 494. In view of the 112 rejections above art was not applied to claims 14-18.

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Blatt discloses a device.
